PARKING DEFINITIONS

Valet Parking: You take possession of a vehicle from its owner, park the vehicle, and retain the keys. (NOTE: This category includes garages with vehicle lifts, with each slot counting as one valet-parking space.)

Assisted Parking: Vehicle owners park their own vehicles but leave their keys with you, in case the vehicle must be moved.

Self-Parking: Vehicle owners park their own vehicles and retain possession of their vehicle keys.

Special Events: You are hired for a single occasion to provide parking services, such as (a) valet-parking vehicles for a private party or celebrity event or (b) handling parking management or traffic direction for a concert or sporting event at a location where you do not regularly provide such services.

8. Provide total space counts for the upcoming, expiring, and prior policy terms for all of your regular parking locations. The "upcoming (projected)" totals should match the totals on your Schedule of Parking Locations.

READ AND ACKNOWLEDGE THE FOLLOWING PARAGRAPH (required):

The policy does not provide coverage for vehicles that you operate for others (such as shuttles or service vehicles owned by a hotel or dealership but driven by your employees under agreement). This operation must be insured on a separate Automobile policy. Check here to acknowledge. "

NOTE: The policy does not provide coverage for vehicles that you operate for others (such as shuttles or service vehicles owned by a hotel or dealership but driven by your employees under agreement). Coverage for these vehicles is not provided under Hired Automobile Liability or Non-Owned Automobile Liability coverage. This operation must be insured on a separate Automobile policy.

NOTE: If you own company automobiles and have an Automobile policy, the policy cannot provide either Hired Automobile Liability or Non-Owned Automobile Liability coverage. These lines of coverage should be added to your owned-automobile insurance policy instead.
